

" respecting the dignity of every human being "

Welcome to St. James' in the City!

We're happy to have you with us this morning. We hope you find our parish to be a place of welcome and invitation. After the service, come have a cup of coffee and visit our welcome table, where you'll find out more of what St. James' has to offer.

Thank You for a Wonderful Picnic!

Deepest thanks to the many people who helped make the 2017 Feast of St. James Annual Picnic a success. And even though it wasn't our usual space, it was comfortable. The food was delicious, the children were happily entertained, and St. James' came together for some well-deserved fellowship. Well done!

HeARTS for God UPDATE

Choir Camp returns Sunday August 6th with music teacher and band leader for Saint James' School, Luisa Cartegena, who will work with the kids during Sunday School (10:30-11:30AM) on a beautiful piece of music that the kids will be singing during the family service on August 13th (if you weren't at our last family service, the kids were magnificent!). On Sunday August 20th, 27th, September 3rd, Lori Jaroslow will be back to work with the kids on music and scripture readings for our September 10th family service. Thank you so much for your participation over the summer – it's wonderful to hear our kids singing and to see them participating in church!

Mens Group

Having recently returned from a wonderful retreat, the Men's Group of St. James' will gather at 7pm on Wednesday, August 2nd at the home of David Shaw, south of Saint James'. FROM THE BISHOP

Summers on Long Island where I grew up, meant the beach, with all its heat and salt and critters. We could go to the ocean side and be batted around by the waves or over to the more peaceful bay, where we could swim a straight line, dig for clams and have our toes tweaked by scuttling crabs. This beautiful poem by Marc Doty conjures up those summer days and at the same time goes so much deeper. Enjoy! +Catherine

A Green Crab's Shell (1953)

Not, exactly, green:
closer to bronze
preserved in kind brine,

something retrieved
from a Greco-Roman wreck, patinated and oddly muscular. We cannot know what his fantastic legs were like—

though evidence suggests eight complexly folded

scuttling works
of armament, crowned
by the foreclaws'

gesture of menace
and power. A gull's gobbled the center,

leaving this chamber
—size of a demitasse—
open to reveal

a shocking, Giotto blue.
Though it smells
of seaweed and ruin,

this little traveling case comes with such lavish lining!
Imagine breathing

surrounded by the brilliant rinse
of summer's firmament.

What color is the underside of skin?
Not so bad, to die,
if we could be opened
into this—
if the smallest chambers

of ourselves,
similarly,
revealed some sky.
