Welcome to St. James' in the City!

We're happy to have you with us this morning. We hope you find our parish to be a place of welcome and invitation. After the service, come have a cup of coffee and visit our welcome table, where you'll find out more of what St. James' has to offer.

Today is Interfaith Welcome Sunday

For the second year in a row, we welcome friends of different faiths to worship at St. James' at the 10:30 service. For this service we also welcome the Ismailli Muslim Choir of Los Angeles to sing, in addition to our wonderful St. James' Korean Choir. A festive international luncheon will follow. All are welcome.

HeARTS for God Childrens Choir

Sings at Today's Family Service, 9:30AM

Music teacher and band leader for Saint James' School, Luisa Cartagena, directs our wonderful childrens choir in a beautiful anthem chosen especially for this Sunday. All are welcome.

Note: Lori Jaroslow returns to lead HeARTS for God beginning Sunday August 20th, 27th, and September 3rd. Lori will work with the children on music and scripture readings for our September 10th family service. Thank you so much for your participation over the summer – it's wonderful to hear our kids singing and to see them participating in church!

The Ismaili Muslim Choir

The Ismaili Muslim Choir of Los Angeles prides itself as a bridge between communities through love for arts and culture. Their most recent performances include Newground's Trailblazer Awards, the International Day of Prayer hosted by LA Mayor Eric Garcetti, author Lee Hilling's book tour on Afghanistan's advancements in prenatal care, and for the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission at City Hall. Today's reciters are Nashia Jadhavji, Beenish Dhanani, Amaan Judah, Shayan Ali, Shahana Jaffer, Hussain Fadwani (Zeenat Bhamani and Shama Judah can't be with us today.. Each of these young men and women have been reciting and teaching devotional literature in places of worship in multiple languages for over 20 years. Today's piece in particular is about remembrance and unity across cultures, bringing together Arabic, Hebrew, Farsi and Urdu.

Fall Events at St. James' In the City

September 17th is our kickoff Sunday for the Fall and we're planning our annual Ministry Fair. We hope that as you learn about our various ministries that you are inspired to sign up for one or more volunteer opportunities.

Michaelmas is Sunday, September 24th when we welcome back the Choir of St. James' to celebrate the Feast of St. Michael.

In October, we will hold our annual Feast of St. Francis and Animal Blessing on Sunday, October 2nd, and finally, we join St. James' African parishioners for African Fellowship Sunday on Sunday, October 8th. We hope to see you at all these events!

WHERE'S LAUREN?

Many of you know Lauren Azeltine as our very hard working Parish Administrator. Some of you know that she often sings with the St. James' Choir for our services of Evensong. But the reason we don't see her on Sunday morning is that she is a member of All Saints, Beverly Hills, and is a regular member of the choir there.

From now till August 30, Lauren will be spending her vacation on pilgrimage with the All Saints' Choir as they sing in residence at two of the most famous seats of the Anglican choral tradition in England: Wells Cathedral and Salisbury Cathedral, where they will sing the daily services of Evensong, as well as the principal Sunday morning services for one week in each location. The pilgrimage will then culminate in their singing at a special service at the Chapel Royal of St. Peter ad Vincula at the Tower of London.

Singing every day in Cathedral offers a spiritual rhythm and discipline that is unfamiliar to most American choristers. Those who take this kind of journey are deeply enriched by the experience.

The pilgrimage will also include special activities such as following the footsteps of George Herbert on his twice weekly walk from St Andrews, Bremerton to services at Salisbury Cathedral.

Lauren is no stranger to these venues as she has sung with the St. James' choir on their pilgrimage 2010 that included singing Evensong in Wells and a visit to Salisbury, among other locations. In addition, five members of the Choir of St. James' are also going on this pilgrimage: Gerry Craft, Susie and Brett McDermid, Stephen Salts, and Andrea Zomorodian.

We wish Lauren and the choir bon voyage and many blessings for this pilgrimage and safe return at it's completion.

Faithfully,
+CATHERINE
