Welcome to St. James' in the City!

We're happy to have you with us this morning. We hope you find our parish to be a place of welcome and invitation. After the service, come have a cup of coffee and visit our welcome table, where you'll find out more of what St. James' has to offer.

Remember to join our 15 minutes of prayer time in the church before the services for the life and ministry of this congregation.

TODAY is the Feast of All Saints

Every year on this day, we remember our loved ones who have died over the past year, as well as those who we will always remember.

Tucked into your bulletins is a sheet of paper for you to list your loved ones in memoriam. Bring your completed sheets up to the basket during communion. These slips of paper will be part of what ignites the new fire, lit as we celebrate Christ's resurrection at the Great Vigil on Easter Eve.

Next Sunday is Stewardship Ingathering

November 12th is our stewardship ingathering, when all who wish to support St. James' financially make a pledge of giving for the coming year in support of our continuing as a Community of Hope in a tumultuous world. At the Offertory we will bring our completed pledge cards (or completed "I already pledged" cards), and any boxes of children's bandages for the Courage for Cassidy campaign, up to front of the church to be blessed. A catered lunch will follow; all are welcome.

Mens Group Postponed to November 15

The next gathering of the Mens Group will be held at Ken Robbins' home in the Cahuenga Pass, on Wednesday, November 15, to accommodate a vestry and school board meeting with our new Bishop

Taylor on November 1st. Alan Heppel will be sending out a notice around November 8 so that you can RSVP. Thank you for understanding about the change in our usual date.

INTRODUCING THE CHAIR OF YOUR RECTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE

I'm Ingrid-Finley Scott, and have agreed to serve as the chair and vestry liaison of our rector search committee. I've been a member of the St. James congregation for seventeen years, my late husband and I having been introduced to it by my parents, who told me I would love the place and its people. They were right!

As a member of this wonderful community of faith, I've served at the altar, as a lay reader, as a member of the Vestry and the School Board. Beyond St. James I've spent most of my professional career at UCLA, where I worked on the Human Resources team at UCLA Extension; Steve Yeazell, our Senior Warden, tells me that this professional experience was one of the reasons he asked me to serve as the vestry liaison on the search committee: though I've never "searched" for a rector before, I've had a considerable amount of experience in other searches.

As we move forward with our own search, I'll try to give you regular updates on our progress. As you know, this is the point at which good—that is, effective—searches need to proceed in confidence, but there's a fair amount of procedural information that we can share: how many candidates we are considering; what the various stages of our search entail; where we are in terms of those stages and the like.

In exchange for this information, which I'll share with the whole congregation on a regular basis, I ask a favor: please understand that I cannot share information about individual candidates. I'm looking forward in prayer and joy to helping this wonderful community of faith choose its next clerical leader.

Ingrid Finley-Scott
