A NEW YEAR AT ST. JAMES' SCHOOL

One of the real delights of being your rector here at St. James' is getting to know the terrific faculty and staff and wonderful new headmaster at St. James' School. This week I enjoyed blessing backpacks on the school field on the first day of school, hosting Nancy Vermette's kindergarten class on a visit to my office, and, along with Headmaster Peter Reinke and Canon Aidan Koh, commissioning the teachers for the year to come. What a joy it is to work in concert with the marvelous St. James' School! We are blessed.

Peace and blessings,
 Kate+

Praying for You and Your Loved Ones

Here at St. James' we have a wonderful team of people who are dedicated to praying for you and your loved ones. They are called intercessors and they have been blessed and commissioned to do this important and holy work!

If you would like prayer for yourself or a loved one, here is what you do: find the card in your pew titled Intercessory Prayer Card, fill it out and place it in the box on the table in the entryway (narthex) to church. All prayers are strictly confidential. In the challenges you face, you are not alone.

RESPONDING TO HURRICANES

Credit NOAA/RAMMB

Episcopal Relief & Development invites you to partner with us as we support dioceses that are preparing to respond to hurricanes and other tragic storms.

Right now, your contribution to Episcopal Relief & Development's Hurricane Relief Fund will support impacted communities as they prepare for and mobilize storms like Hurricane Florence. Your donation will meet urgent needs by providing critical supplies such as food, water and other basics and will help us to provide long-term assistance as needed.

We respond to storms in the United States through partnerships with Episcopal dioceses. Our US Disaster team offers resources and training to help people prepare for disasters and provide emergency support so those most impacted can make a sustained recovery after the storm. The benefit of our partnership with Episcopal churches is that these congregations are already deeply integrated within their communities - they are there before responders arrive and will remain long after the news cameras have gone.

To make a donation, please fill out the coupon below and mail it in with your check or credit card information. You can also contribute online to our Hurricane Relief Fund at

Thank you for your compassion and prayers. With your partnership, we are working together for lasting change.
