

Welcome to St. James' in the City!

We're happy to have you with us this morning. We hope you find our parish to be a place of welcome and invitation. After the service, come to coffee hour in the Parish Hall across the courtyard.

Please Continue to Wear a Name Tag

As Rev. Kate continues to learn all our names, please continue to use the labels in the Narthex. It's also a great way to learn each other's names as we grow together here at St. James'.

Book Group Meets Today

Conference Room, After 10:30 Service

The International Book Group plans to discuss Rothschild's Violin by Anton Chekhov is a lovely short story about how hatefulness and greed can be transformed into tolerance and redemption. As always, we invite you to join the book group. Please email us at medicaldiplomat@aol.com for further information.

St. James' School Celebrations!

This past week, we have had two marvelous opportunities to celebrate St. James' School. First, on Saturday, the 50th anniversary celebration, including a brilliant sermon by the Rev. Betsy Anderson, followed by a festive lunch.

Pictured: William Walton, Jeffrey Armour, Rev. Kate, the Hon. Dorothy Kim, Cathy Helm, Steve McLean and Peter Reinke, ready to cut anniversary cake!

Then, on Wednesday morning at school chapel, Bishop John Taylor joined us for the installation of Peter Reinke as the new headmaster of St. James' School. What a joyous occasion! We are blessed to live and work and pray in such a richly meaningful environment. I am especially moved to hear former students and parents talk about what the St. James' community has meant — and continues to mean — to them.

Stewardship Corner

By now, we hope you have received Rev. Kate's stewardship letter and 2019 pledge card. If not, then our database is incomplete and we need to add you! Additional stewardship envelopes are in a basket in the entryway (narthex) — please take one! Pledge cards are in the pocket in your pew. You can fill one out and place it in the collection plate.

We are counting on you to pledge as we aim for 100% pledging here at St. James'. Large or small, your contribution truly helps your church. So far, 38 pledges have come through, bringing us to a total of $74,694. Thank you to all who have pledged! Such a good start, AND YET, we still have far to go. More pledgers, please!

Your Help — Always Appreciated

Dear Friends,

A wonderful thing I am learning about life here at St. James' is that, when you hear about a need or a challenge, you respond. For instance, when I shared with you the decrepit shape of the chairs in our lobby, two families came forward with offers to help. Almost immediately we received lovely leather chairs to take the place of the old, stained ones!

Here is another request. In times past, we had something at church called the Pew Patrol. This team took on the job each week of refilling the slots in the church pews with pledge envelopes, church brochures, prayer cards, pens and other important items. They also picked up and recycled used bulletins and other miscellaneous papers. This may sound like a small job but it is vitally important. It helps with the flow of information and giving. Please see or contact me if you are willing to join this team!

And finally, let me know if you feel called to volunteer in another way or if you are looking for ideas of how to help your church. I am grateful for your generosity.

Peace and blessings, Kate+

Be a Greeter!

We need greeters! One of our most important missions is to make sure every visitor feels welcome at St. James'. Would you consider becoming a greeter after the 8am or 10:30am service? We want to make sure we seek out visitors, encourage them to sign the guest book and if possible, introduce them to others so they know they've found their perfect church home. Please volunteer! It's easy and rewarding. Please talk to or email Chris Woodyard at chriswoodyard@hotmail.com.

Blanket Donations Accepted

As the cold season arrives donations of clean blankets are always valuable to our outreach guests. For the next few weeks there will be a box in the Parish Hall to leave your donations. Your generosity is always appreciated.
