The Choir of Saint James is excited to announce a 10-day tour of Ireland planned for July 19th through July 29th, 2019. We will begin in Dublin for 5 nights, traveling to Cork for 2 nights and concluding in Galway for 3 nights. Performances include singing for Eucharist services at two Cathedrals on each Sunday with various concert presentations in between. Stay tuned for a complete itinerary, including accommodations, to be posted on the church website (stjla.org) in the next several weeks. Parishioners and friends are welcome to make their own arrangements to meet up with the choir for all or part of our Irish adventure! St. James' Women's Retreat – MARCH 8-10, 2019

Lent 2019: Meeting Jesus Again for the First Time

Join the women of St. James' and come away for a weekend to Mt. Calvary Monastery in Santa Barbara. We will be led by the Rev. Kate Lewis, a priest of our diocese and a Board Certified Chaplain serving at St. John's Pleasant Valley Hospital in Camarillo. Mother Kate Cress will also be in attendance.

Who is Jesus? What were you taught as a child? What do you think now? We'll utilize Marcus Borg's modern classic book Meeting Jesus Again for the First Time as our starting point to explore the presence and promise of Jesus at this particular time in each of our lives. We'll explore the insights of theologians like Cynthia Bourgeault, Thomas Keating, Richard Rohr, and Mary Oliver to think more expansively and to practice more authentically.

Come away and meet Jesus again for the first time. Engage in thoughtful conversation with new and old friends. Immerse yourself in the beauty of nature either at the monastery or in nearby Rocky Nook Park. Join the monks in their rhythm of daily prayer and praise. Come away and rediscover the call and the promise of Christ in your life. $300 to attend the retreat; and a $50 deposit will reserve your spot. You may pay online at stjla.org, or write a check to St. James' (write Women's Retreat on the memo line). For more information, please contact Sara Jane Thies (sjthies1503@gmail.com); Holly Holyk (gaah@att.net); or Ingrid Finley-Scott (ingridfs45@icloud.com).

Flower Power and Coffee Hour

You may not know this—flowers on the altar and food at coffee hour are almost entirely funded through parishioner generosity. Flower dedications (remembering loved ones, special occasions like birthdays and anniversaries, and thanksgiving for other good news) help pay for flowers, and coffee hour hosts provide the wonderful treats we enjoy after church. We invite you to sign up for these ways of supporting the beauty of worship and fueling of fellowship here at St. James'. Your participation is much needed in the weeks to come.

Please Continue to Wear a Name Tag

Do you know the name of every single person here at St. James'? Not yet? That's why we wear nametags. Keep learning names!

Notice of Upcoming Vestry Election at Annual Parish Meeting

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 10th After the 10:30 Service

In the Episcopal Church the vestry, a group of lay persons acting in concert with the rector, functions in a manner analogous to a board of trustees or director of a corporation: most significantly, the vestry is charged with fiduciary responsibilities for church property, as well as with calling and periodically evaluating the rector. St. James' bylaws call for three year terms for vestry members, so each year a new "class" of vestry members must be chosen.

In accordance with the parish bylaws your vestry appointed a nominating committee composed of vestry and non-vestry members (Stephen Yeazell, Emily Abbott, José Zambrana, Adoabi Obijaku, and Sandra Lee). That committee in turn presented a slate of proposed nominees to the vestry, which unanimously approved the slate at its December meeting. The short biographies and pictures of this slate appear below. At our annual meeting (on February 10, after the 10:30AM service) this slate (and any additional nominees) will be submitted to the annual meeting for a vote by qualified parishioners. If approved, each new member of the vestry will have a three year term, again according to our bylaws. If members of the parish wish to nominate themselves or a fellow parishioner as alternates to the vestry slate, they must do so by submitting the names in writing to the parish office no later than January 25th. The office will circulate the bios of any additional nominees. Further in accordance with our bylaws, we will post a list of those entitled to vote at the annual meeting in the parish hall starting this Sunday. Please direct any questions regarding this process to the Senior or Junior Warden (Steve Yeazell; Emily Abbott).

Nominees for 2019-2021 Vestry Members

(Listed in Alphabetical Order)

Stephen Bedikian

My wife Heather and I joined St. James' in 2004 when our son Jordan was baptized in the Church. Jordan subsequently attended St. James Episcopal School and graduated in 2012. I worked closely with the then Head of School Debbi David as a member of the school's Advancement Committee. This past year I assisted Bishop Roskam and Senior Warden Steve Yeazell with the successful St. James' Church Mid-Year Pledge Campaign and more recently helped Mother Kate and the Stewardship Committee members to plan and execute our ongoing 2019 Pledge Campaign.

Elizabeth Igwe

My husband David and I along with our three small children joined St. James' family in the late 1980's. With young children in tow, plus work and college commitments, we could only manage to attend church services as often as possible. Making our widow's might pledges and donations in support of the Parish.

Years later, I found myself serving as a member of the Parish Lay ministries: serving as a Lector and Intercessor till present. I also served 1 term in the vestry during Fr. Paul Kowalewski's tenure as the Rector. I am an active member of St. James' African Christian Fellowship and am the immediate past President of the Fellowship. It was such a joy working with Bishop Catherine Roskam during that period presiding over the resolution of various issues faced by the parish. I also had the honor and privilege of being called to serve in the search committee that brought Mother Kate to St James'. I am humbled by the nomination to serve once more in the vestry.

Mary Van Osdel Manning

I am a life-long Episcopalian – the home I grew up in was the closest house to our church in Encino. As a teenager I took care of the younger children in the nursery, belonged to the church youth group, and was a volunteer (with others from the parish) at the old Good Samaritan Hospital while I was in high school.

I attended Argyll Episcopal Academy for my last year and a half of high school. After high school, I went to the University of Arizona and then to UCLA. After UCLA, I took a paralegal course, got a paralegal job, and became a night student at Southwestern School of Law. After graduation and bar passage I practiced law for many years, in firms in Los Angeles and Glendale.

My husband Alan and I attended St. Luke's of the Mountains which was close to our home in La Crescenta. We later moved to Glendale and attended the Episcopal Church there where I was active in church and a member of The Daughters of the King – a lay order which concentrates on prayer and service. I have served on search committees and vestries.

I came to Saint James' about 10 years ago when one of my high school classmates (Sara Jane Thies) told me about the Education for Ministry (EFM) group that she was starting. It sounded interesting, and this how Alan and I came to Saint James'. At St. James', I have served as a lay reader at the 8:00 service. I also am one of the instructors of the EFM program for which I also do administrative tasks. I currently teach years 3 and 4, (Church History and Theology) in the EFM Program. Last year I served on the search committee that screened rector candidates for recommendation to the vestry.

Ola Thomas

My name is Ola Thomas. I was born in Sierra Leone, baptized and confirmed at St. Mark's Anglican Church. And having been fully immersed in an Anglican Church, I found my home at St. James' Episcopal Church because of their similarities. My wife, Alice and I have been members of St. James' for almost thirty years. We are blessed with three awesome children and three wonderful grandchildren. Two of our children were baptized and all three confirmed at St. James'.

My family and I have been blessed and I give God the glory for His calling to serve in the altar and as Lay Reps at St. James'. I am a Lector and an Intercessor. My wife and I have taught our children the significance of stewardship and pledging and we are so proud of them for pledging.

It was an honor to be chosen in 2016 by the outgoing Bishop-in-Charge Catherine Roskam to be the co-chair of our Stewardship Committee. During that year I facilitated and worked with my fellow co-chair, the vestry, members and guides of the stewardship committee to increase the number of pledges we had in 2015. Indeed, we saw an increase in the number of speakers who spoke at the "Minute for Mission" at both the 8AM and 10:30AM services, as well as an increase in the number of pledges.

I am the financial secretary of the African Christian Fellowship at St. James', an executive position I have held before. As a former school teacher in my early twenties I have deep appreciation of interacting with different people, families and students, listening to and communicating with them effectively. This is a concept and practice that have always be part of me and brought to St. James'. As a Certified Health Care Quality Improvement Personnel, I truly believe in team work and I feel quite honored to be considered a candidate for the vestry. This is an exciting time at St. James' especially with our new rector. If elected I will work with the Vestry and members of the Parish to continue to make St. James' a vibrant place of worship where the dignity of every human being is valued and respected.

Bob Williams

I appreciate the opportunity to be of service at St. James'. Our parish community is vibrant, and our future is bright especially with our gifted new rector. May we all together continue to live fully into our potential.

My first visit to St. James' Church was in February 1986 when I wrote a news story on the Caring Hands food program (which was succeeded by Hope-Net), then a significant outreach along the Wilshire Corridor. I soon returned to St. James' for concerts and the parish's 75th anniversary celebration. I began attending Sunday services and joined the parish after moving to Hollywood from South Pasadena.

At St. James' I found old friends and made new ones. St. James' is to me a nourishing spiritual home. I often invite others to share in our multicultural vitality, Great Music, St. James' School, Soup Kitchen and more.

In recent years it has been my privilege to chair the parish communications committee, facilitate the Middle East Ministries group, and moderate a civic panel on homelessness. I have assisted with crisis communications at various challenging times in the life of the parish, and with large events including the 1997 memorial for Princess Diana, and, in 2012, the parish centennial.

In serving St. James' I am glad to draw from experience gained across the Anglican Communion as the Episcopal Church's director of communication in 2004-2008. I currently serve Bishop John Taylor as diocesan Canon for Common Life specializing in communications, interfaith ministries, and historical collections, with a priority on helping congregations implement best practices in our shared work of "feeding hungry hearts."

Call for Delegate Nominations

The Vestry is seeking nominees for five (5) lay delegates to Diocesan Convention 2019, which will take place November 15–16, 2019 in Riverside, CA. Anyone interested should send a statement of interest to Emily Abbott at emily.mariah.abbott@gmail.com. Please include the reason[s] you feel called to this ministry and any relevant experience. The delegates will be elected at the Annual Meeting in January.
