From Mother Kate

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday was wonderful, as we gathered together here at Saint James with friends from across the diocese to learn more about Korean history, culture, and Christianity. One highlight was hearing The Venerable Dr. Jongmae Kenneth Park (right), Bishop of Korean Buddhist Taegu Order Overseas Parish here in Los Angeles. He spoke about the two Koreas, North and South, and prospects for reunification.

Here is a fascinating fact: Bishop Park's grandfather, the Rev. Mark Kim (1866-1946) was the first Anglican Korean clergy person in Korea! Father John Kim likes to joke that his good friend Dr. Park is a 'traitor' for turning out to be a Buddhist rather than Episcopal priest! We are glad he is our good friend here at St. James.' He joined us for my recent installation and taught us so much at last Sunday's event. And, wonderfully, his grandfather appears in one of our stained glass windows, the Glorification window (a portion of the window is pictured above left), which is located directly next to the rear loft of the church on the west side, and the image of him, with his congregation, is at the bottom right corner. (Note: the center image is of the Rt. Rev. Paul Hwan Lee, first Korean Bishop of the Anglican Church in Korea. Also depicted in the center image are the Rose of Sharon (national flower of Korea) and the Korean national flag.)

I love all the ways we are connected in the community of St. James and Los Angeles.

Peace, Kate+

Pew Patrol Needs a Few Extra Hands

Each week, this team goes around the church refilling the slots in the church pews with pledge envelopes, church brochures, prayer cards, pens and other important items. They also pick up and recycle used bulletins and other miscellaneous papers. This may sound like a small job but it is vitally important. It helps with the flow of information and of giving. Please contact the church office if you are willing to join this team! 213-388-3417.

YAPGES Meeting!

Wednesday, March 13th at 7:00PM

The March meeting of YAPGES (the Young Adult Prayer Group and Eating Society) is scheduled for Wednesday, March 13th, at 7:00PM. Join the 20/30s group for a potluck and fellowship. Please call the church office for the address, 213-388-3417.

Flower Power and Coffee Hour

You may not know this-flowers on the altar and food at coffee hour are almost entirely funded through parishioner generosity.

Flower dedications (remembering loved ones, special occasions like birthdays and anniversaries, and thanksgiving for other good news) help pay for flowers, and coffee hour hosts provide the wonderful treats we enjoy after church. We invite you to sign up for these ways of supporting the beauty of worship and fueling of fellowship here at St. James'.

Your participation is much needed in the weeks to come.
