

Welcome to St. James' in the City!

We're happy to have you with us this morning. We hope you find our parish to be a place of welcome and invitation. After the service, come to coffee hour in the Parish Hall across the courtyard.

Adult Forums for Lent Preparing to Celebrate Easter with Joy Starts Today!

All are invited to join the Rt. Rev. Frank Brookhart in a two part presentation to explore ideas central to the Easter theme. Both forums will take place in-between the 8AM and 10:30AM services in the Conference Room (2nd floor of the Parish Office building).

Sunday April 7th – Resurrection

Bishop Frank will draw upon the New Testament to discuss the concept of resurrection as the definitive victory of God.

Sunday April 14th – Baptism

For this forum, Bishop Frank will explore baptism and the call to live out our baptismal identity.

African Christian Fellowship Monthly Meeting and Lunch

Today After the 10:30 Service in St. James' School Hall.

All are welcome to join the ACF for their regular monthly meeting and lunch (generally held on the 1st Sunday of each month after the 10:30 am service in St. James' School hall.

The purpose of this fellowship is to provide a forum for all people, but most especially at St. James'—to embrace and maintain the unity, culture and values of Africans both in the United States and Africa—with emphasis on religious closeness and family values.

Prayer Boxes

If you would like to bring your paper prayer boxes to the Easter Vigil we can offer them up to God in the fire we burn in the courtyard at the start of the Vigil. God is making all things new!

St. James' Stained Glass Windows

“Lead Us Not Into Temptation...”

“...but deliver us from evil.” Today we look at the fifth in our series exploring the meaning of “The Lord’s Prayer Windows”, the lower lineup of stained glass windows along the eastern wall of the main Sanctuary.

Today, let’s start at the bottom of the window, where we see Christ in the wilderness battling against Satan’s temptations. In the next image above this, Christ is seen climbing towards the Kingdom the God, and away from the little blue Satan in the corner of the image (“Get thee behind me, Satan” – Matthew 16:23). The very top of the window is Christ the King, pointing to the end of time when the kingdom of Jesus will be established in all its fullness to the ends of the earth. In the Episcopal church, Christ the King Sunday is the last Sunday in ordinary time, and it leads into Advent, when the Church anticipates Christ’s second coming.

For more information on all our windows, you may obtain a copy of A Guide to the Stained Glass Windows of Saint James' Episcopal Church Los Angeles, available for a suggested donation of $20. Please contact the church office at 213-388-3417.

The original guidebook began about 1980, and was written by the Rev. Mark Lieske. Since then, many of St. James' members have contributed to bringing it to its current edition, namely: Wills Beigel (deceased), Emily Maverick, Mary Maverick, Doug Seifert, Heidi McLean, the Rev. Canon Aidan Koh, John Daum (deceased), Karen White, Mike Lyons, and Mary Nichols. Sandra Lee was instrumental in creating the new design and getting the book printed. We are extremely thankful to everyone for the many hours of time and money it took to make this book possible.

Please Continue to Wear a Name Tag

Do you know the name of every single person here at St. James'?

Not yet? That’s why we wear nametags.

This means you too, ushers! Keep learning names!
