

SAINT JAMES' IN THE CITY

ANGLICAN/EPISCOPAL

EVER ANCIENT | EVER NEW

THE FIRST 100 YEARS

The First Saint James' Church

From little seeds do mighty acorns grow. The parishioners of Saint James' didn't always worship in gothic splendor. Wilshire Boulevard at Saint Andrews Place is our third address. The very first Saint James' Church was built on the corner of Pico Boulevard and Ardmore. Above you can see its modest interior.
