About the artists . . .

Grammy-nominated pianist Daniel Schlosberg has appeared with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in numerous chamber music concerts and new music concerts, and was a featured soloist in subscription performances of Messiaen's "Trois Petites Liturgies." He has a passion for contemporary music, collaborating frequently with Eighth Blackbird and Third Coast Percussion. He has given the world premiere of Augusta Read Thomas's "Starlight Ribbons" for solo piano and the U.S. premiere of Kaija Saariaho's "Calices" for violin and piano with violinist Austin Wulliman. He has recorded for the Albany, Bridge, Bright Shiny Things, Centaur, Navona, New World, Nimbus, Jacaranda, and Permelia labels. His latest solo release is "Gaul Me Maybe: French Baroque Keyboard Music." In the art song realm, he has been on staff at Ravinia's Steans Institute vocal program, and is founder and director of the Baltimore Lieder Weekend, held each October. His release with soprano Laura Strickling, "40@40," reached #1 on the Billboard charts and received a Grammy nomination this year. Other recent projects include Mahler/Zemlinsky: Symphony No. 6 (arr. 4-hands) at the National Gallery of Art and Ravinia, and appearances at Bargemusic's "Here and Now" festival. He is on faculty at the University of Notre Dame, where he is also advisor to the Table Tennis Club. (danielschlosberg.com)

“Adventurous and passionate” (The New Yorker) Ukrainian-born American pianist Inna Faliks has made a name for herself through her commanding performances of standard piano repertoire and inquisitive work with contemporary composers. She has performed on many of the world’s great stages, in solo appearances, and with conductors such as Leonard Slatkin and Keith Lockhart. Highlights of recent seasons include performances at the Ravinia Festival and the National Gallery in DC, recital tours in all the major halls in China, as well as at the Portland Piano Festival and with Camerata Pacifica, the modern dance troupe Bodytraffic at the Broad Stage in Santa Monica, and on the Jacaranda series in Los Angeles. A frequent guest artist on this series, Ms. Faliks collaborates and premieres music by some of today’s most important composers, such as Billy Childs, Richard Danielpour, Timo Andres, and Clarice Assad. She is known for her poetry-music series Music/Words, and has collaborated with many important poets. She regularly tours with her monologue-recital Polonaise-Fantasia, the Story of a Pianist, which tells the story of her immigration to the United States from Odessa, recorded on the Delos label. Her musical memoir, titled Weight in the Fingertips, was published in 2023 by Globe Pequot. A Yamaha Artist, she is currently Professor and Head of Piano Studies at UCLA.

Next week . . .

Please join us February 25 at 6:00 pm, when Duo Syncopa —Tomomi Sato, piano and Yue Qian, violin — will be here to play Robert Schumann’s Five Pieces in Folk Style, Opus 102; Beethoven’s Violin Sonata No. 6 in A Minor, Opus 30, No. 1; and Road Movies by John Adams. In two weeks, on March 3, Maxim Eshkenazy will conduct the Colburn Sinfonietta in music by Vivaldi and Beethoven (the Eroica Symphony).

Please visit GreatMusicLA.org for further news of our 2023/24 season of free concerts and other musical events.
