About the Artist...

Nicole Keller is in demand as a concert artist, adjudicator, and clinician. She has concertized in the States and abroad in venues such as St. Patrick Cathedral, New York; Cathédrale Notre-Dame, Paris; Dom St. Stephan, Passau; St. Patrick Cathedral, Armagh, Northern Ireland; and The Kazakh National University for the Arts, Astana, Kazakhstan. She specializes in eclectic programs suited to instrument and audience with a desire to expand the listener's horizons, pairing familiar sounds and genres with less familiar ones.

Ms. Keller's performances with orchestras includes concertos, works for small chamber orchestra, and large works involving organ, harpsichord, and piano. She has extensive experience as a chamber musician and as a continuo player, including many performances of Bach's St. Matthew and St. John Passions, the Christmas Oratorio, and the Mass in B minor in addition to a host of cantatas and baroque chamber music.

As a teacher, Ms. Keller strives to foster and model a commitment to excellence in performance, scholarship and self-growth as students deepen their love of music and their instrument. Her students have been accepted into and attended prestigious graduate schools throughout the country and enjoy successful musical careers in a variety of settings. She was recently appointed to the faculty of the School of Music, Theatre and Dance at the University of Michigan.

Ms. Keller's extensive church music experience includes work in with volunteer and professional choirs and instrumental ensembles devoted to the highest level of music for worship. She has created organ and choral scholar programs at small and mid size parishes, developed successful children's choir programs, and has led choirs on tour in the states and abroad including choral residencies at Bristol Cathedral, U.K. and St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, Ireland.

Ms. Keller received the Performer's Certificate and the Master of Music Degree in Organ Performance and Literature at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York under the tutelage of David Higgs. While at Eastman, she studied continuo with Arthur Haas and improvisation with Gerre Hancock. She received the Bachelor of Music Degree in Piano Performance from the Baldwin Wallace Conservatory of Music in Berea, Ohio, where she studied piano with George Cherry and Jean Stell and organ with Margaret Scharf.

Coming events in

GREAT MUSIC AT SAINT JAMES

Please join us next Sunday, March 24 at 4:15 PM, when we welcome ICantori of Walla Walla University, Kraig Scott, conductor, in a Solemn Evensong for Palm Sunday. They will perform the music of Gabriel Jackson, Jake Runestad, Margaret Burk, James Buonemani and Sergei Rachmaninov.

On April 7 at 6 PM, the International Laureates Organ Series presents Adam Brakel. And on April 14 at 4:15 PM, Joby Talbot's stirring PATH OF MIRACLES for chorus and percussion will be conducted by Maura Tuffy with singers from the Choir of Saint James and guests.

Please visit GreatMusicLA.org for more information on all our free concerts. Live-streams of these concerts and on-demand recordings are also available at GreatMusicLA.org.

A double CD featuring organist Todd Wilson playing St. James' 1911 Murray M. Harris Organ is available for purchase at STJLA.org/album or by scanning the QR code below.

The Choir of Saint James' critically acclaimed album on the Gothic label, O Beauty Ever Ancient Ever New, is also available for purchase.

Your donation to help sustain our programs is appreciated!

To become a Friend of Great Music at Saint James, please visit STJLA.org/musicfriends, or scan the QR code to donate or purchase our organ and choir CD's.

You can also make a donation this evening by enclosing it in the donation envelope found inside this program and placing it in a donation basket as you exit the church. Thank you!
